Sri V. S. PATIL.—May I know this Rice-milling Industries Regulation has been brought into force at all because it must be everybody's concern? Why do the Government restrict it to rice-milling industry?

Sri M. V. KRISHNAPPA.—This Act has been passed by the Government of India. There was a committee appointed by the Centre to encourage hand-pounding industry.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Vitamins are better preserved by handpounding.

Sri M. V. KRISHNAPPA.—That was the main reason to protect the nutritive food that is being wasted in the polishing of the rice in the mills. The Government wanted to have control over them and that is why the Act was brought into force.
